

Chris Greetham PT, MCSP, COMT.

Chris is a Certified Orthopaedic Manual Therapist, and a Member of the Chartered Society of Physiotherapy. Chris received his B.S. in Physical Therapy from Bath University, School of Physiotherapy in Avon, England ('83). He received advanced training in the Maitland approach from the well-known Dr. James Cyriax in London. Mr. Greetham has been a guest faculty member at University of Maryland and Marymount University (Virginia). Chris presented at both MAPS Symposiums on Spinal and Peripheral Manipulation and was integral in the development of MAPS MT-M: Spinal and Peripheral Manipulation seminar. Currently, Mr. Greetham owns and operates his own a private practice in Northern Virginia. With over 30 years of clinical experience, Chris is extremely well versed in both the theory and realities of providing top-notch manual therapy patient care in today's challenging healthcare environment.