

Carla Franck, PT, DPT, OCS, COMT, FAAOMPT

Carla is a Board Certified Orthopedic Specialist and a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapists. Carla graduated with a BA from Coe College ('07) with a double major in Biology and Art. She continued her education at The University of Iowa and received her Doctor of Physical Therapy ('09). Carla then completed the Creighton University Orthopedic Residency Program ('13) and most recently the University of Illinois at Chicago Fellowship in Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapy ('15). She currently resides in Eastern Iowa where she works as a staff orthopedic physical therapist at Kepros Physical Therapy and Performance. In addition, Carla participates as a clinical instructor, mentor, and in education program development.