

Travis H. Stoner, PT, DPT, COMT

Dr. Travis Stoner graduated from Shenandoah University with a Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology in 2002 and a Doctor of Physical Therapy in 2005. After graduating, Dr. Stoner started practicing in a hospital based outpatient facility gaining experience in neurological, vestibular, and total joint rehabilitation as well as serving as the Director of their Aquatic Physical Therapy program. In 2009 Dr. Stoner began working in outpatient orthopedic manual therapy and has been in orthopedics ever since, completing his certification in orthopedic manual therapy (COMT) in 2011. In addition to his practice experience, he has also served as an Assistant Professor at Shenandoah University's Division of Physical Therapy and has performed physical screening for officer candidates at Quantico Marine Base. Dr. Stoner is also a lab assistant for Maitland Australian Physiotherapy Seminars. Dr. Stoner is a Maitland Certified Orthopedic Manual Therapist (COMT), former Certified Aquatic Therapist (ATRIC), ACLS (Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support) Certified, Certified Clinical Instructor and is an active member of the American Physical Therapy Association and the American Academy of Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapists.